

Verification of Identity for Self-Represented Parties

The Registrar-General's Verification of Identity (VOI) Requirements necessitate that parties to a Lands Titles Office (LTO) Registry Instrument must have their identity verified. These requirements reduce the risk of land title fraud and any other improper dealings with land in South Australia.

What is a Self-Represented Party?

Self-Represented Parties are individuals who choose to prepare their own documentation to be lodged with Land Services SA rather than employing the services of a Registered Conveyancer or Legal Practitioner.

What does this mean for me?

As a Self-Represented Party entering into a 'conveyancing transaction' you are responsible for verifying your identity in accordance with the VOI Requirements.

How do I verify my identity?

You are required to show your evidence (as per the attached Table 1) to a Justice of the Peace, Police Officer, Legal Practitioner, Registered Conveyancer or a Notary Public (see Table 3 for their contact information).

These authorised persons will then need to fill in a Certification (See Table 4) and endorse photocopies of the evidence as "true copies of the originals sighted".

What do I need to lodge with Land Services SA?

You will need to attach the endorsed copies of the above-mentioned evidence together with the completed Certification to the Real Property Dealing before lodgement with Land Services SA.

Land Services SA will then check the evidence produced and the Real Property dealing before accepting the lodgement.

Should you require further information or assistance, please contact our Client Advice Officer on 8423 5000
