

Name Search Suppression Application Pack

What is Name Search Suppression?

Name Search Suppression enables at-risk individuals to apply to the Registrar-General to have access restricted to searches of Land Services SA records using their name.

The South Australian Integrated Land Administration System (SAILIS) holds details of all Certificates of Title, Crown Leases and LTO dealings, such as transfers and leases. Land Services SA maintains this system, which includes an index of Power of Attorney dealings registered with Land Services SA.

Am I eligible for Name Search Suppression?

To be eligible for Name Search Suppression, you must be willing to declare that you believe your safety (or that of another person) may be put at risk should your address be obtained by someone conducting a search of Land Services SA records using your name. You will also be eligible if your name appears on any Land Services SA record together with that of another person who may be at risk.

Please note that applications for Name Search Suppression will only be accepted from individuals. Companies, associations and other incorporated bodies will not be eligible.

Will my details be completely hidden?

Name Search Suppression will only prevent your details from being revealed to someone searching Land Services SA records using your name. It will still be possible for them to access your information using alternative search criteria (e.g. Certificate of Title reference or LTO dealing reference).

Additionally, if someone has a compelling business need for information inaccessible via a name search, they will be able to apply to the Registrar-General for access. For an Application to Access Suppressed Details to warrant consideration, the Applicant would need to establish that they require the information for a legitimate business purpose; there are no other means of obtaining it; and no person will be placed at risk by its release. One such example might be someone acting as executor for a deceased person whose details are suppressed.

What about other government agencies?

The Registrar-General has a statutory obligation to provide property ownership advice to Local Government Authorities and rating agencies.

A small number of data extracts and reports containing owner name and address information – including details that are suppressed from the results of Land Services SA name searches - are also provided to other government agencies (e.g. RevenueSA and SA Water).

Additionally, government agencies that have a legitimate requirement for suppressed information will be able to request that the Registrar-General grant them access. These include the South Australian Police, Australian Taxation Office and any other agency that performs a law enforcement function; has a right to the information under legislation; and/or can demonstrate that they require the information in order to exercise their statutory functions.

How do I apply for Name Search Suppression?

Applications for Name Search Suppression are made up of two parts - an application form and a statutory declaration, both of which must be completed before your application can be submitted to Land Services SA. Copies of both the application form and statutory declaration template, together with guidance notes and examples, are included in this application pack.

Your statutory declaration must make it clear to the Registrar-General that you believe your safety (or that of another person) may be jeopardised by the availability of your address via a search of LSG records using your name. It must also establish that you are one and the same person referred to on the associated application form. To ensure that your Application for Name Search Suppression is processed in a timely manner, you must ensure that you have made an appropriate declaration and had it witnessed by an authorised functionary prior to submitting your application with Land Services SA.

The completed application form must contain the following:

- Your full name (including any middle names) and business hours contact details;
- Any other name(s) you may have used previously (e.g. a married or maiden name);
- Details of all property(s) you own, or have previously owned, in South Australia;
- Details of any other interest(s) you hold, or have previously held, in property in South Australia (e.g. as Lessee).
- Your current signature and the date of your application.

It is important to ensure that all relevant information is included on your application form. Failure to provide sufficient details may result in your particulars remaining accessible via a search of Land Services SA records using your name.

How much will it cost to apply for Name Search Suppression?

No fee will be payable for submitting an Application for Name Search Suppression.

Can I make a joint application with my partner?

No. Each individual requesting that their details be suppressed from Land Services SA name searches must submit a separate Application for Name Search Suppression.

It is recommended that you encourage any person(s) whose name(s) appears together with your own on a record held by Land Services SA (e.g. a Certificate of Title or LTO dealing), to apply for Name Search Suppression. Failure to do so may result in your address being revealed as a result of a search of the other person's name.

How do I submit my completed Application for Name Search Suppression?

Applications for Name Search Suppression can be submitted by post or in person.

To submit an application by post (reply paid):

1. You will need two envelopes, one larger than the other (e.g. "DL" & "DLX" sizes).
2. Inside the smaller of the two envelopes, place the following application documents:
 - a. Application form (completed in full and signed by the Applicant);
 - b. Statutory declaration (completed and witnessed by an authorised functionary);
3. Seal this envelope, write the words "Attn: Suppression Officer" on the front, and then place it inside the larger envelope.
4. Seal the larger envelope, address it to "Lands Titles Office, Reply Paid 1354, Adelaide SA 5001", and place it in an Australia Post mail box for collection.

(Please note - to ensure the confidentiality of your application, you should not place your name on either of the two envelopes provided.)

To submit an application in person (by appointment):

- In order to have your Application for Name Search Suppression processed in person, it will be necessary for you to schedule an appointment with the Suppression Officer. Failure to do so may result in extended waiting times – especially during peak periods.
- Appointments can be scheduled during business hours by e-mailing NameSuppression@landservices.com.au, or by calling our Customer Support line on (08) 8423 5000.

How long will my details remain suppressed?

Suppression of your details from name searches of Land Services SA records will remain in place until such time as an Application to Remove Name Search Suppression form is submitted and accepted.

Please note however that the Registrar-General retains the right to vary or revoke suppression of any person's details should such action be warranted (e.g. if the original Application for Name Search Suppression was supported by a false declaration).

What if I own property interstate?

If you own property outside of South Australia, you will need to contact the land administration authority in the relevant state or territory and ask if they offer, or are considering, an equivalent service.

What if I purchase another property in the future?

You will need to submit an Application to Amend a Suppression Record if in the future you:

- Acquire any additional property(s) in South Australia;
- Acquire any other interest(s) in property in South Australia (e.g. as Lessee);
- Are named in a Power of Attorney dealing lodged with Land Services SA; or
- Are named as a benefitting party in any dealing lodged with Land Services SA (e.g. as Caveator or Lienor).

If there is a discrepancy between the details provided and those stored in Land Services SA databases, a Registrar-General's representative may contact you for clarification. It is therefore important to provide full business hours contact details.
- B. Property details to be suppressed – Insert the address(es) of any properties you currently own, or have previously owned, in South Australia. If you do not know the dealing reference number, but are able to provide some information that may assist us in locating the record (e.g. "Lease of property at 31 Wright Street Adelaide"), you should include this in the spaces provided.

Please note that if a new dealing is to be lodged with Land Services SA at the same time as your Application for Name Search Suppression:

- the dealing will not yet have a reference number, therefore you should insert the dealing type together with a brief description of the transaction (e.g. "Transfer of CT5432/109 from Ava Person to Jayne Grace Citizen, dated 8/1/13")
 - in order to ensure that suppression is applied to the new dealing(s), they must be submitted "Face-to-Face", together with your completed application.
- D. Application / Acknowledgement - This section has been completed for you and requires no amendment. If your application is successful, Land Services SA will restrict access to searches of its databases, by name, relating to the records referred to in your application. By signing in the space provided, you are acknowledging that you are aware of the following:
- A successful Application for Name Search Suppression will not prevent your details from being revealed by other search methods (e.g. a search by Certificate of Title reference)
 - It will be your responsibility to notify Land Services SA if, at any time in the future:
 - o You acquire any additional property(s) in South Australia;
 - o You acquire any other interest(s) in property in South Australia (e.g. as Lessee) and/or
 - o Your name appears on any dealing to be lodged with Land Services SA (including a Power of Attorney).
