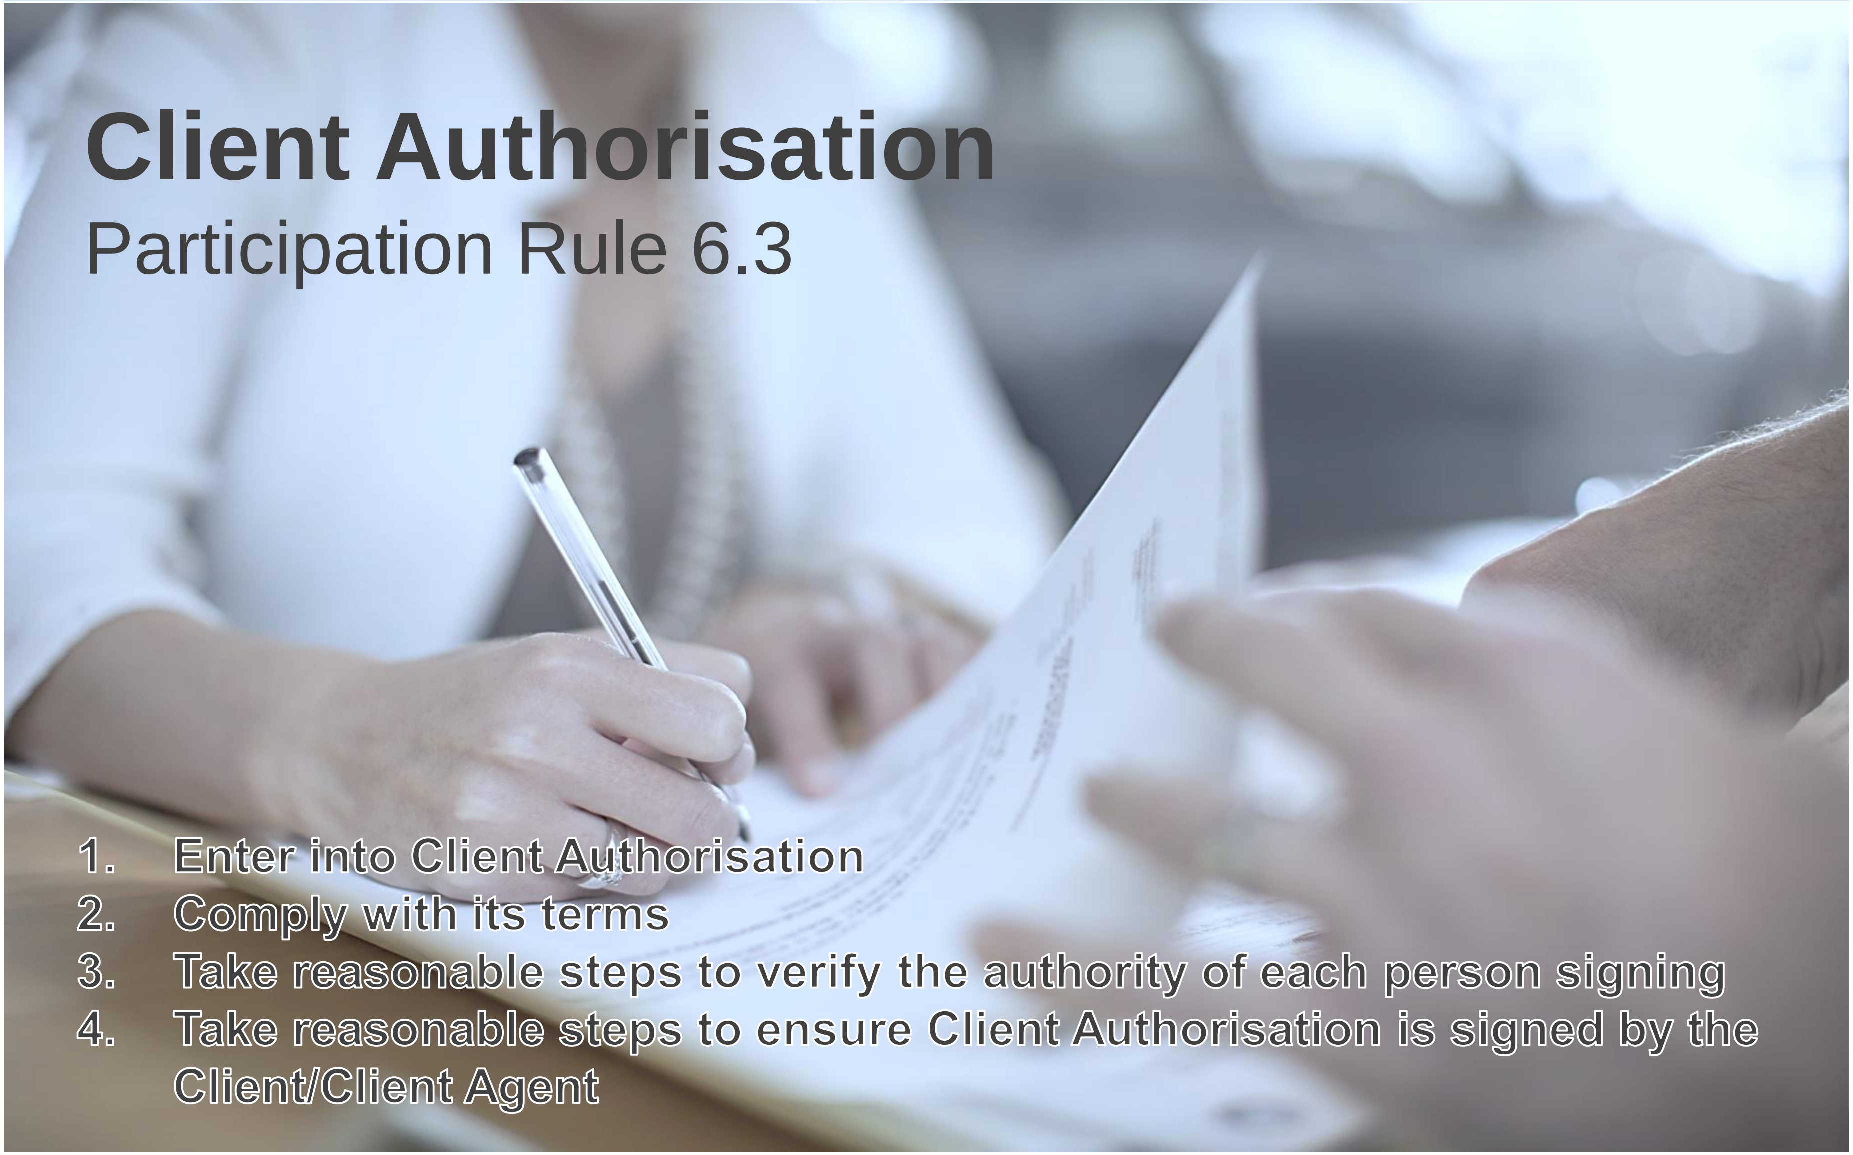
Client Authorisation Information Session

Office of the Registrar-General

July 2020



Client Authorisation

Participation Rule 6.3

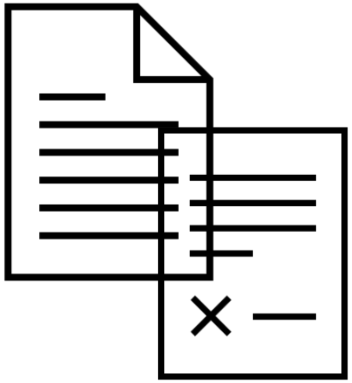
1. Enter into Client Authorisation
2. Comply with its terms
3. Take reasonable steps to verify the authority of each person signing
4. Take reasonable steps to ensure Client Authorisation is signed by the Client/Client Agent

Obtaining a Client Authorisation

- What is a CA?
- Why is a CA required?
- When is a CA required?
- How is a CA completed?

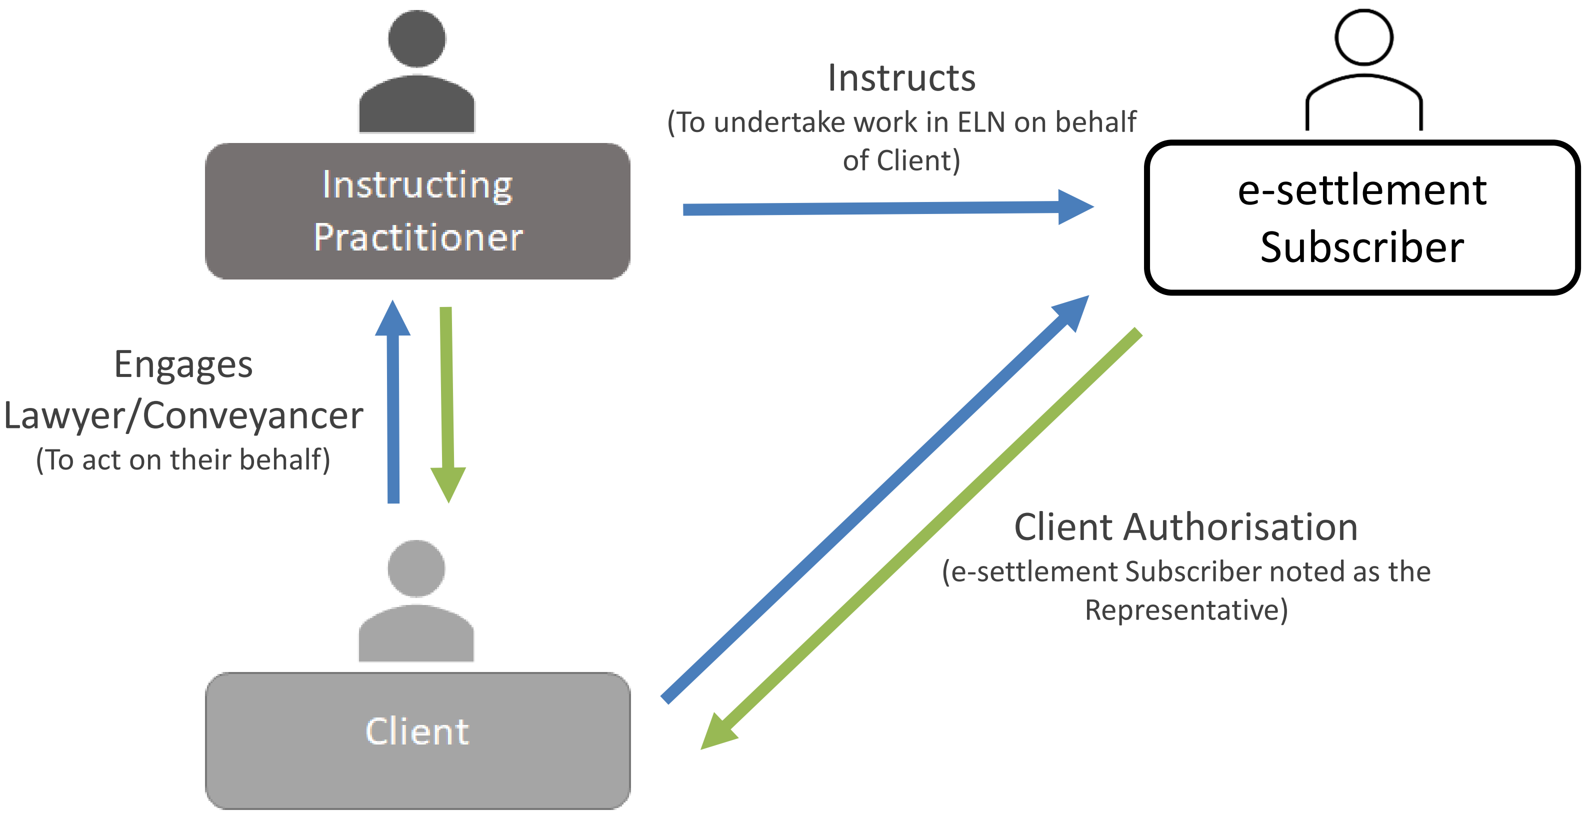
For more information see:

ARNECC MPR Guidance Note #1 – Client Authorisation



Client Authorisation
Smart Form

Where an e-settlement Subscriber is engaged



Further Information

Legislation

- Real Property Act 1886
- Electronic Conveyancing National Law (South Australia) Act 2013

ARNECC Website

- ARNECC MPR Guidance Note #1 – Client Authorisation
- ARNECC Client Authorisation Smart Form
- ARNECC Guidance for e-Settlement Subscribers and their Instructing Practitioners

LSSA Website

- Exempt dealings
- South Australian Participation Rules