

Helping you get it right the first time

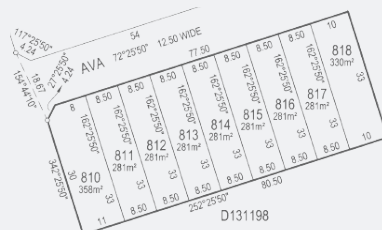

Premium Consulting is a personalised service that delivers advice and consultation to parties involved in the property development process.

Requisitions cost time and money

A significant number of plans and dealings are delayed due to preventable errors or incomplete information.

There are currently a high volume of requisitions issued by Land Services SA. These requisitions can add days, weeks and even months onto the overall time taken for plan approval and dealing registration.

This service is perfect for surveyors, developers, and conveyancers looking to reduce risk in plan lodgement.

- Pre-Examined plans and dealings ensuring they are accurate prior to lodgement.
- Reduce requisitions after lodgement resulting in:

Smoother plan processing

Faster registration of dealings

Prompt title creation

Reduce holding costs
