eConveyancing Industry Consultation

The Future of eConveyancing

The Office of the Registrar-General is currently undertaking a consultation program with stakeholders on the future of eConveyancing in South Australia.

The purpose of this Customer Information Bulletin is to:

- inform you of the results of consultation already undertaken, and
- invite you to contribute to the consultation program through an online survey and a half-day forum.

In an initial consultation process, the Office of the Registrar-General received feedback from 27 stakeholders via email, teleconference and in-person engagement sessions. The results of this engagement process have been consolidated into a Stakeholder Consultation Report (the Report), which is now published online at www.sa.gov.au

We invite you to complete a brief and anonymous multiple choice survey on the topic of eConveyancing.

You are also invited to attend a half-day forum on Wednesday 22 August from 1pm – 5pm, at the Adelaide Convention Centre. The forum will include a review of feedback from the survey and initial engagement process, small group discussions, a panel Q&A session and an opportunity to have your say on the preferred model of eConveyancing for South Australia into the future. Click here to register.

Please note, due to event location constraints attendance at the forum is limited to 150 people, with allocation of tickets to be supplied on a first come first serve basis.

For all enquiries regarding the consultation program or the Report, and the online survey or forum, please email: DPTI.RegistrarGeneral@sa.gov.au
