Release of Electronic Residual Dealings

Release of Electronic Residual Dealings

New residual dealings are now available for electronic lodgement by Property Exchange Australia (PEXA) Subscribers. These are in addition to those outlined in Notice to Lodging Parties #235, #240 and #244. A notice will be provided when available to Sympli Subscribers.

User Guide

The User Guide, outlining the residual dealings available for electronic lodgement and any supporting evidence/document requirements for each type, has been updated on the Land Services SA Electronic Conveyancing webpage.

Most non-division dealings are now available for electronic lodgement and industry will be notified when further dealings become available.
